VCU Health Scribe Program

An invaluable opportunity to work in an academic medical center, one on one with physicians, allied health providers, and residents in a fast-paced, dynamic Emergency Department. Medical Scribes are responsible for the accurate documentation of the electronic medical record (EMR) at the direction of the providers they work alongside. Our medical scribes will partner with the clinical team to help enhance provider-patient encounters and reduce the time providers spend focused on extensive documentation. This allows the provider to increase their focus on medical care and facilitates patient flow throughout the department.
